

Editorial.....

Hey Mayoites!

How were the assessments? But wait.....don't we have the Unit Tests starting from Monday? Yes.....two exams coming together so quickly! Anyway, take Unit Tests as revisions tests and not serious exams. If we look carefully, Unit Tests actually prove out to be a great support for the Half Yearly exams.

Teachers' Day was a fun-filled day...wasn't it!

The swimming interhouse started finished this Thursday. It was great to see all boys swimming, diving and cheering for their house with all their heart!

Thanks to all those readers who gave their valued feedback on our blog. We will try our best to improve it with your kind suggestions.

A good news for all talented writers from classes 7 and 8! A National level short-story writing competition is going to be hosted for 25 boys from each batch. All budding writers must grab this rare opportunity!

Best of luck for your Unit Tests and keep sending us your feedback!

Regards,

The Mayo College Mail Team

Teachers' Day

The teachers and students watching the 'Na-Real' Awards in the assembly hall.

On September 5, Teachers' Day was celebrated at Mayo College to regard the 'Gurus' for their support and guidance. It was indeed a fun-filled day not just for the staff but also for the students.

At Junior School, a short programme was put up. It was then followed by a staff v/s student cricket match.

At Senior School, the assembly was taken by the College Captain. A funny award session then took place which was followed by a debate. Three staff v/s student matches were held that day which included a hockey match, a cricket match and a water polo match. In the evening, the students and teachers assembled in the Principal's House for a short entertainment programme which was followed by the Principal's Dinner.

All students thanked the teachers for their immense support and guidance throughout the year.

The programme at the senior school assembly hall was very enjoyable.

SUN-Sign CHECK

Aquarius

If you're determined to work through a problem on your own, that's okay, as long as you know you can turn to your friends or family if you need some help. Everyone wants you to be happy, so they're ready to do whatever you need. Don't be afraid to ask them for help.

Pisces

Try to spend some time this week with your family. It doesn't have to be a big serious thing, maybe just a trip to the park or a picnic.

Aries

Don't worry if things with your friends are a little crazed in the school. Sit with them and sort things out.

Taurus

You may have some big decisions to make this week, but you've got a lot of people to help and support you. No matter what you choose you'll be just fine because you have the strength and determination to make anything a success.

Gemini

If you feel like going somewhere else and staying there for some time... then do it! It may open new doors for you!

Cancer

Has the writing bug bitten you? Whether it's a journal, a short story or poetry, you're ready to spend some quality time getting those words out on paper (or onto the screen.) Don't hold back - let that creativity flow!

Leo

You've got lots of social plans this week, so be careful not to burn out before next weekend.

Virgo

You've been going in a million different directions and trying to keep everyone happy, but this week you're ready to pull ahead and focus on what's really important. You may meet up with someone who helps you feel even stronger and more confident about what you're doing.

Libra

You're feeling more confident about yourself this week, and it shows - in a good way! You'll find it easier to speak up for yourself and say what's on your mind.

Scorpio

You may find yourself getting into all sorts of really heated discussions with your friends this week. They may not be arguments exactly, but you have really strong feelings and you're not afraid to say what you think.

Sagittarius

You've got all those great things going on for you this week, like confidence, great leadership and high energy. Don't forget some of those other things too, like honesty and patience. The best leaders learn how to work with the whole team, which makes it a lot easier to get things done!

Capricorn

Find time this week to clear up any differences between you and a close friend. You don't want to carry that argument into the weekend or it could ruin your plans and make things really difficult for everyone.
